

1. You see a student bullying someone.
Do you do something?

3. You are tired but your neighbour needs help.
Do you help them?

2. Your friend copies homework.
Do you tell the teacher?

4. You find some money on the school floor.
Do you keep it or hand it in?

5. You promised to visit your cousin in hospital but your friends invite you out at the same time.

What do you do?

7. You see an old woman struggling to carry her groceries. You are in a hurry.

What do you do?

6. Your class is asked to clean the classroom but nobody wants to do it.

Do you take the initiative?

8. Your classmates are laughing at a new student who doesn't speak English well.

Do you step in to help?

9. You are invited to volunteer at an animal shelter on Saturday, but you also have homework.

How do you balance your responsibilities?

11. Your neighbour is ill and needs someone to walk their dog every morning. Would you offer to help without expecting anything in return?

10. You find out your friend cheated in a test. If you tell the teacher, your friend will be angry.

What is the right thing to do?

12. Your school organizes a charity event, but no one volunteers to help. Would you take the lead?