

USEFUL PHRASES/EXPRESSIONS –READING COMPREHENSION

READING COMPREHENSION QUESTIONS:

- The purpose of the text is to inform people about.....
- Those may be concluded because of the phrase....as well as from
- It can also be assumed
- The text supports this idea because the whole aim of the article is about
- The question is not directly answered . However, it is clear that.....
- The purpose of the text is to provide/give information/to explain/ to highlight the importance/to indicate/ to show the important role.../to report on...to provide someone with information-tips-advice/to emphasize the role of...
- Its main objective/ aim is to examine the role....
- The text is full of facts . It appears to have no aim other than presenting
- The aim is to increase awareness of what.....
- The text is aimed at (teachers)....
- The purpose of the text is to advise/persuade/ educate...
- The text is persuasive/unbiased/biased/informal/formal
- The tone is persuasive

- The language used is scientific
- The text appears to state a clear opinion and be written to be attention-getting and informative
- The text suggests that...../the opposite
- It can easily be inferred/ concluded/deduced.....
- It is supported by the idea....
- No actual statistics are given
- The text can be found in a journal/magazine/newspaper/leaflet/brochure/encyclopedia/recipe book
- The article contains scientific/formal language
- The purpose of the text is to refute the misconception that....
- Taking into consideration/account the examples –facts given
- Judging from....
- To accentuate that....
- By stating.....
- The text includes only....
- The writer uses.....when referring to....