

TOPIC 1: "Why Everyone Should Have the Right to an Education": Discuss the importance of education for individuals and society, highlighting the reasons why it should be accessible to all.

1. Basic Knowledge and Skills

- Education teaches essential skills like reading, writing, and math, which are necessary for daily life.

2. Better Job Opportunities

- Having an education often leads to better job prospects and higher pay, helping people support themselves and their families.

3. Breaking the Cycle of Poverty

- Education can help lift families out of poverty by providing the tools needed for better employment and financial stability.

4. Personal Growth

- Learning new things boosts confidence and self-esteem, helping individuals grow and develop as people.

5. Well-Informed Citizens

- Education helps people understand their rights and responsibilities, making them more informed and engaged citizens.

6. Health Awareness

- Educated individuals are more likely to make healthier choices and understand health information, leading to better overall health.

7. Building a Better Society

- When everyone has access to education, communities become stronger and more united, leading to a better society for all.

TOPIC 2: "Education is More Than Just Books" What do you think?

1. Social Skills and Communication

School is the first place where we learn to live in a community with people who are not our family.

- Learning how to share ideas, listen to others, and complete a task together.
- Learning how to handle disagreements or "playground arguments" in a peaceful and fair way.
- Interacting with people from different cultures and backgrounds, which teaches us respect.

2. Personal Responsibility and Discipline

Books give you information, but the routine of school gives you character.

- Time Management/Meeting Deadlines./Organization

3. Critical Thinking and Problem Solving

Education is about learning how to think, not just what to think.

4. Emotional Intelligence

School helps students understand their own feelings and the feelings of others.
