

-
1. A public building or group of buildings containing different retail stores and other facilities.
    - A. mall
    - B. department store
    - C. bakery
    - D. butcher's

  2. A sweet dish typically served at the end of a meal.
    - A. poultry
    - B. vegetables
    - C. selection
    - D. dessert

  3. A mixture of ground meat, usually beef, that is often used to make meals like patties or sauces.
    - A. mince
    - B. poultry
    - C. beef
    - D. steak

  4. A type of store that sells flowers and plants to customers.
    - A. florist's
    - B. bakery
    - C. grocery store
    - D. greengrocer's

  5. A store that primarily sells fresh fruits and vegetables.
    - A. greengrocer's
    - B. stationer's
    - C. butcher's
    - D. bakery

  6. An event or occasion to mark a particular anniversary or achievement, often involving special festivities.
    - A. celebration
    - B. selection
    - C. department
    - D. occasion

  7. A condition in which food or drinks are considered to have great taste and appeal.
    - A. superb
    - B. tempting
    - C. delicious
    - D. ready prepared

8. A portion of a bird that is often cooked and served as food, like chicken or turkey.
- A. vegetables
  - B. poultry
  - C. beef
  - D. seafood
9. A store that specializes in selling various types of meat, including beef, pork, and chicken.
- A. florist's
  - B. butcher's
  - C. dairy corner
  - D. stationer's
10. A special type of pork cut that is typically grilled or fried, known for its distinct bone and tenderness.
- A. pork chop
  - B. lamb rib
  - C. steak
  - D. mince
11. An area in a grocery store dedicated to selling milk, cheese, and yogurt products.
- A. bakery
  - B. dairy corner
  - C. greengrocer's
  - D. butcher's
12. A kind of store where you can buy baked goods like bread, cakes, and pastries.
- A. butcher's
  - B. bakery
  - C. florist's
  - D. grocer's
13. A term used to describe the variety of items available in a store or a collection.
- A. range
  - B. selection
  - C. department
  - D. occasion