

ΘΕΜΑ 1. ΚΑΤΑΝΟΗΣΗ ΓΡΑΠΤΟΥ ΛΟΓΟΥ

Read the text and decide if each statement (1-10) is True (A), False (B) or Not Mentioned (C).

Located in a quiet corner of the Aegean Sea, Tilos has recently been distinguished as a place where refugees from the war in Syria are actively welcomed. Maria Kamma, the mayor of Tilos, has welcomed the refugee families. The number of refugees – a dozen families – who settled in Tilos may seem small but, given that the island’s population is around 500 people, it is important.

Unlike the miserable camps in other parts of Greece where refugees have nothing to do, those on Tilos are getting involved in the routine of daily life.

Almost all the adults -aside from mothers looking after small children- have found work, in hotels and restaurants, shops, the island’s bakery or as day workers. They live in a purpose-built camp in the middle of Livadia, the island’s port, where tourists eat grilled fish and tsatsiki in seafront tavernas.

It is not so comfortable. Families live in Portakabins, share a cooking area and a shower block. But trees provide some shade and there is plenty of room for the children to run around.

Conditions are far better than in other, much larger camps on Aegean islands such as Lesbos and Chios, where refugees have been stuck since crossing in boats from nearby Turkey. Those people, many of them women and small children, are suffering from much more “psychological stress” and despair, according to the UN.
